POOLING AGREEMENT

WESTERN ROADS SAID TO BE PRE-PARING TO MAINTAIN RATES.

Judge Woods Holds Lease of the T. H. & P. by the T. H. & I. to Be Binding-General and Personal.

Secret conferences are being held at Chicago by presidents of leading Western railroads for the purpose of "preparing a plan to insure the maintenance of rates." This plan is to be submitted at the next quarterly meeting of executive officers of Western railroads and the Interstate-commerce in the dining cars on the Nickel-plate road Commission, which will be held in New York, Friday, June 8, instead of June 7 at Washington, as originally announced. showing the meals, prices, etc., so as to Those who have been present at the conferences are extremely reticent in regard to it. Nevertheless, there is good authority for the statement that the plan now being prepared will be for a general pooling agreement in everything but name. The opinion has often been expressed by the Interstate Commission, and nearly all leading railway officials concur in it, that pooling is the only remedy for rate dis-

Proposed Fast Freight Line.

William O. Carr, of Indianapolis, a traveling agent of the Erie Railway, was in Rushville, this week, sounding produce shippers on a proposed fast freight service of refrigerator cars, between Indianapolis and New York and Boston, via the C., H. & D. and Erie lines. The move is just what local produce shippers have been praying for for years. The closest pick-up points for the shipment of perishable stuff to the East are Anderson, on the Big Four, and Columbus, on the Panhandle. Mr. Carr was given substantial encouragement for his proposed refrigerator line.

for Art Museum.

H. C. Ives, director of the Fine Arts

Museum of St. Louis, who was the guest of Hugh H. Hanna, president of the Indianapolis Art Association, yesterday, addressed the directors of the association yesterday afternoon. Prior to his talk to the directors Mr. Ives visited the different sites talked of for the Herron Art Museum.

He was well pleased with all of them but told the directors he could make no special recommendation. He said the association

In his talk Mr. Ives took pains to impress on the directors the importance of selecting a site where there is plenty of room. He does not think it necessary to have an art museum "down town" unless the association can find grounds that are large enough. It would be better, he said, to erect the museum in the suburbs than to build it in the central part of the city and then in years afterward, when it is desired to enlarge the museum, find there is not sufficient ground. Mr. Ives said to the directors that if they could locate the museum in one of the city parks it would perhaps be the best thing to do. He said the men and women who work in the stores and factories are becoming the most enthusiastic patrons of art musems, but they can only visit these places on Sundays or on holidays. When they do have the opportunity of visiting the museum the matter of a car ride of a mile or two is nothing to them, and, in fact, lends pleasure to the trip. They will really get more enjoyment out of a visit to the museum if it is situated some distance from the business part of the city. While here Mr. Ives vis-

No Action Taken by the Board in the Matter-The Observance of Memorial Day.

The most important matter that came up before the School Board last night was the report of Business Director Cleland on the question of heating the school buildings.

Mr. Cleland, after a careful investigation, has reached the conclusion that a saving from $3,000 to $4,000 a year can be made by the use of coal instead of gas. Mr. Cleland finds that it costs on an average of $31.59 to heat a room with gas during the school year. He estimates that it will cost $21.50 te heat the same room with coal and to use both coal and gas, which frequently has to be done to keep the rooms comfortable, it costs on an average of $35.25 a room. Mr.

Cleland finds that in the last year it has been necessary to spend about $1,500 in the purchase of coal to keep the schoolrooms cemfortable. The board took no action on

DAN CREEDON NO MATCH FOR THE

VIMBLE KID M'COY.

Blow That Hurt. NEW YORK, May 18 .- Charles "Kid"

McCoy easily defeated Australian Dan Creedon at the Broadway Athletic Club tonight before one of the largest crowds that has ever assembled in the club. Thirtyfour seconds of the sixth round was all the time needed to turn the trick and Mc-Coy could have brought the fight to a speedier conclusion had he been so disposed. Creedon made a very poor showing. At no time did he land a blow that hurt McCoy.

The opening bout between Tommy Feltz, DETROIT, Mich., May 18.-Parker's of Brooklyn, and Harry Bresnick, of New In March, 1898, Judge Woods, in the complete description of the device, giving pitching was too much for the local team York, scheduled as a twelve-round fight at 105 pounds, was a short aair, ending in the second round in favor of Feltz. The referee declared Bresnick outclassed. Creedon was the first to enter the ring, accompanied by Dal Hawkins, Benny Murphy and Joe Caine. A few minutes later the Kid came through the ropes, with his brother Homer, Billy Muldoon, Joe Felvey and Jimmy Deforest as seconds Both looked to be in good shape and after receiving their instructions from the referee they got to business.

When the bell sounded the Kid started in with clever feinting and foot work. He had a smile on his face, but Creedon looked serious and was first to land with a good left to the wind. McCoy danced away and came back with several jabs to the face and body, and then crossed his right to the head. Creedon was inclined to mix things in the second round and twice landed his left to the head. McCoy jabbed and tried hard to reach the jaw with his right, but Dan held a high guard and although the Kid reached the stomach with the left hand he was still there at the bell, but tired. In the third round McCoy began jabbing his right to the wind, but was blocked when he tried for the jaw. Dan kept going, but was unable to land punch until later in the round, when he reached the body with a right. A left hook on the eye brought the blood and sent Creedon on his back, but he managed to get to his feet and stay the round. McCoy did not seem inclined to rush matters in the fourth and Dan finally cornered him and swung a hard left to the body. Mc-Coy returned a left hook to Dan's injured eye and backed away when Dan rushed. Creedon was very tired at the bell. McCoy opened the fifth with a left to the body, but Dan blocked his right swing and returned a vicious swing for the head, which the Kid ducked. The Kid then swung his left, but was wild and was laughed at by the crowd. Dan swung a good left to the head and the Kid countered with his right to the body and repeated the blow when Dan crowded in. Creedon was still on his feet at the bell.

McCoy came to him for the sixth with the evident intention of finishing it and abbed his left to the face and his right to head. He then forced Dan around the ring, but Dan sent him away with a right swing to the neck. McCoy was right back with a right to the body and then hooked his left to the jaw, sending Dan to the floor. Creedon's second, seeing he was defeated, threw up the sponge. McCoy was then declared the winner.

Burns Forced to Ride Hard to Land the Louisville Juvenile Stakes -Results at Other Tracks.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 18.-The Juvenile stakes, for two-year-olds, to-day dwindled to a three-horse race, but furnished one of the prettiest contests of the meeting. Farmer Bennett, Queen Carnival and Menace finished as named, all lapped on each other and all driving to the limit. Burns had to do his hardest riding to land Farmer Bennett winner by a neck. In the second race Nettle Regent was played strongly for a good thing, being backed from 15 to 1 to 4 to 1. She only failed to deliver the goods by being almost left at the post, for she showed she was the best one in the race by coming all around her field and running third. The good thing in the last race was Maydine, a shifty little three-year-old filly belonging to President and Presiding Judge W. F. Schulte, of the Louisville Jockey Club. Besides being a hot one the tip had the merit of going through, and Maydine, backed from 30 to to 6 to 1, won handily in the fast time of
